Lesson For May 4, 1919.

Topic: Man Made in the Image of God.

Gen. 1:26-27; Hebrews 2:5-12.

REV. J. J. DICKEY.

Nothing puts such a high estimate upon man as the Bible. Science treats him as a species of the animal kingdom, politics as a citizen of the state, finance as a producer of wealth, sociology as a member of society; but the Bible declares that he is a being made in the image of God and capable of communion with God. This is a high dignity. It elevates man among the angels. Then the Bible dignifies him as an under lord, having dominion over all created things. Surely man should appreciate the Bible.

In what sense was man made in the image of God? Not in physical form for God is a spirit. In Ephesians 4:24 it is stated that this image consists in "righteousness and true holiness." But man is an unholy being. He was not so created. At his creation God called him "very good." Gen. 1:31. Sin has marred and disfigured that image. Jesus Christ came to this world, suffered and died, to restore that lost image. He can do it. He does do it for all who repent of their sins and seek his pardon. To have this image restored and to retain that image is man's chief business in this life. At an immense cost this has been made possible.

The chief business of mankind is to make men holy—to lead them to the fountain of cleansing, and to train them in holy living. But men cannot do this until they are made holy themselves. This prepares them to teach others how they may become holy. While it is the duty of all men to engage in this work it is peculiarly the business of the parent, the teacher and the preacher.

Man is exercising his dominion over nature. He has well nigh conquered her and made her subservient to his will. But the greatest victory is the conquest of himself. "He that ruleth his spirit is greater than he that taketh a city." Prov. 16:32.

Our fathers in their poverty wrought to make men, to restore in their children the image of God; and they made them, strong and true. Today men are more interested in making things. Boys and girls are trained for business—to make money, to be successful in the commercial, the literary, the agricultural world. They are taught to put a high estimate on things that perish with the life, while but little effort is made to show them the value of eternal things. This is a great mistake. It means a failure to reach the destiny God intends us to attain. Until men's natures are changed by the grace of God they will pursue this course, which ends in eternal ruin. "Seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." Matt. 6:33.

A BOOM TO ARMY CIRCLES

With 176 Y. M. C. A. centers still catering to the welfare of our men in the American Army of Occupation it is obvious that the Red Triangle is still doing much to give our soldiers a square deal.—Boston Evening Transcript.

EVIDENCE THAT CONVINCES

A Twice-Told Tale That Will Carry Conviction to Ledger Readers.

Fourteen years ago, Mrs. Burns publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

She then told of benefit she had received. With unshaken confidence, she confirms her statement—

"Tells how passing years have strengthened her faith in Doan's. There's no better test than the test of time."

Can any Maysville reader ask for more convincing evidence? Mrs. John Burns, West Second Street, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and the quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since." (Statement given February 13, 1914.)

WE TROUBLE NO ONE
On November 15, 1918, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today, as ever. I have not needed a kidney medicine since I first took them." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns had. Foster-McMillan Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

BUSINESS EXPERT SPEAKS
HERE MONDAY EVENINGRepresentative of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce Will Address Local Business Men Next Monday.

Three hundred invitations were sent out yesterday to the City and County members of the Chamber of Commerce inviting them to attend a general membership meeting which will be held in the Boys' Band room on the third floor of the capitol building, Monday evening, May 6th.

Mr. Colvin B. Brown, representative of the United States Chamber of Commerce, in which the local Chamber of Commerce has membership has accepted an invitation from the Board of Directors to be in attendance and give his address "Why a Community Should Support Its Chamber of Commerce."

Mr. Brown is a man of national reputation having addressed the members of almost every large Chamber of Commerce throughout the United States. He is also one of the world's foremost Commercial Organization authorities being in charge of the bureau of the United States Chamber of Commerce which serves as a clearing house for all commercial problems.

Mr. Brown is attending the annual convention of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States at St. Louis this week and will likely bring to us some of the advanced present day thoughts and suggestions for the solution of some of the problems being faced by all communities at the present time.

Secretary Dodds had the privilege of hearing Mr. Brown speak at the annual meeting at Chicago last year and states that he feels sure Mr. Brown will prove a very entertaining speaker and that he will render a great service to the local organization due to his ability to present his subject in such a forceful manner.

No members should fail to take advantage of the opportunity to hear such a reputable speaker.

THE LAWS AND THE VERITIES

Washington—Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement from its Washington Headquarters:

"Every ancient maxim contains a wealth of truth. If it had not contained truth it would not have survived long enough to become either a maxim or ancient. Here, for instance, is the

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable, I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before."

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape."

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Thedford's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

old saying that 'one man can lead a horse to water but ten men can't make him drink.' In those words we have a statement of truth that should be hung upon the walls of bureaucracy's offices in Washington, where officialdom has gone with the desire to tell all creation how to live and move and have its being. Just now we have in mind the visionary schemes to put returned soldiers on farms. Officialdom can lead a million soldiers up to the land, but it can't make them farm. Canada has tried it and failed. If Uncle Sam also tries it, he will also fail. This is not saying that none of the returned soldiers will go to the farm. A great many of them will. But they will go of their own accord and not through the leadership of an official who is careful to keep away from the soil himself.

"The trouble with the present autocratic administration is that it tells the returning soldiers to go to the farms and then does everything possible to keep them away. Hours of labor and wages are made as attractive as possible in cities or on railroads, while conditions remain practically unchanged in the country. In fact, conditions are less attractive for the farmer who must hire some help, for he finds increasing difficulty in persuading men to leave the city to work on a farm."

"The whole policy of this administration has been one of attempted overthrow of economic law—an effort to prevent water seeking its level, an effort to dislocate the center of gravity, an effort to remake human law by law of executive edict. Price-fixing, government operation, artificial and inequitable wage scales, are illustrations of the determination of self-constituted omnipotents to perform modern miracles. The performances have taken place—their miraculous character has not become apparent for the reason that the eternal law of compensation is still in operation and the country is paying in one form or another for the attempt to set aside natural law.

"When ever the governmental 'back-to-the-farm' bureaus find themselves embarrassed by a flood of resignations from employees who are quitting government jobs to go on the farms, we may expect to find soldiers flocking to agricultural occupations. Until then, soldiers will go to the farms when they feel so disposed, just as a horse will drink when he's thirsty."

And listen, girls—when your skirt is too narrow at the bottom it makes men wonder how you get your feet through it.

Points in the Moline's Favor

There are many points in the MOLINE'S favor when the question of what Farm Tractor to buy comes up. To put them all in print would make a long, long story—but to make a long story short—

POINT 1—The MOLINE is the ONLY tractor with electric lights and self-starter. You don't have to quit important plowing or other work just because the sun goes down. Just turn on the lights and keep right on. The MOLINE will work 24 hours a day for you. Never mind the weather. If it rains on Monday, you can do 2 days' work on Tuesday to make up for it.

POINT 2—The MOLINE is the ONLY tractor that cultivates the seed in the soil.

POINT 3—The MOLINE is the ONLY tractor that reverses and goes around a stump or rock. You drive the MOLINE same as an automobile. Drive backward as well as forward.

POINT 4—The MOLINE is the ONLY tractor that cultivates two rows at a time.

POINT 5—The MOLINE is the ONLY tractor that can be turned around in a 16-foot circle and can be put in a small-sized shed.

POINT 6—The MOLINE is the ONLY tractor that has a device to lock the differential and give perfect traction in soft ground.

POINT 7—The MOLINE is the ONLY tractor that will start and finish a field without a horse.

There are SEVEN points—"one for every day in the week." For more "points" or a demonstration, phone, see or write
